Chinese business delegation coming to Honolulu

Business leaders from Jiaxing, Haining and Haiyan County, China, are in Honolulu this week for a networking meeting with Hawaii business people, with the principal gathering set for Wednesday.

"They are not part of this week's Hawaii Sister Summit so this may be the only opportunity to meet with them," said Johnson Choi, head of the Hong Kong China Hawaii Chamber of Commerce, organizer of the event.

Zhao Yongming and Chen Jianling of Haiyan County Import & Export Co. Ltd. will attend the meeting. He is general manager of the firm and she is assistant manager. They will be joined by Chen Yunlong, managing director of Haiyan County Yunlong Transportation, and by Gu Jinming, assistant manager of the Haiyan County Wuyuan Industrial Development Park.

Also attending will be Li Feng, section chief of the Jiaxing branch of the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade and Sheng Wanlin, department manager for the Jiaxing branch of Bank of China.

Zhang Qinyong, deputy general director for the Haining Rural Enterprises Bureau, is here for the event, along with Shen Yujuan. She is vice president of the China Chamber of International Commerce, Haining Branch.

The event is Wednesday at the China Buffet, Holiday Inn Waikiki, 11:45 a.m.-1:30 p.m., on Ala Moana across from the Hilton Hawaiian Village. The cost is $12 but members of the Hong Kong China Hawaii Chamber of Commerce may attend for free if they register before Wednesday
